The relaxing open plan family and meals area instantly provides you with a sense of home as you enter the front door. These rooms are tastefully decorated in neutral finishing's and provide the heart of the home. They offer you the choice of either moving through the glass sliding doors out to the convenient outdoor alfresco entertaining area, which provides another room and dimension to this already relaxing abode, or into the stunning, modern and well appointed kitchen that overlooks the entire living area, so the chef need never feel left out of the action.
