With no common walls to share with the neighbours and a well thought out floor plan this home flows perfectly from the moment you enter the front door, with a comfortable formal lounge to the left and a spacious Master bedroom suite complete with private en suite and generous walk in robe to the right, conveniently separated from the open plan living, dining and kitchen area by a glass panelled door. The light and bright, well appointed kitchen overlooks the living and dining area and features plenty of bench top space, under bench cupboards, dishwasher, electric oven and 4 burner gas cook top.
