

89 Kingsley Drive Kingsley WA

4 1 2

Stylishly finished both inside and out, and located in the ever popular suburb of Kingsley, is this fabulous, fully renovated, 4 bedroom family home that has everything you could ever desire. Finished with an eye for detail, whilst making full use of the easy flow layout and available space, this stunning home greets you instantly via its modern rendered finish, easy access pathways and inviting timber deck.

Once inside, The front of the home offers you the choice of two large family living areas. On one side you have the formal lounge, that could also be used as a more casual family living area if that is more your style, whilst on the other side of the entry, is another very large multifunctional room, that can be used as either a games room, or even as a family theatre if so desired.
