Luxuriously finished and only a stone's throw from the beach, it's not often an apartment ticks all the boxes, but this one certainly does.

Built to the highest possible standards by Jabiru Construction, there's been no expense spared in the creation of this eight-unit apartment complex. It's been so beautifully finished, in fact, that the development was submitted for a HIA award, in the category of small apartment blocks.

There's so much to love here, from the incredible location at the end of a quiet, tree-lined cul-de-sac, to the high-quality finishes within this light, bright and ultra-modern two-bedroom apartment. Cleverly designed, the floorplan makes the most of all available space, with two generously sized bedrooms, two stylish bathrooms, a
