Featuring hard wood jarrah floorboards, super high ceilings, skirting boards, picture rails, a fireplace, a claw foot bath tub and an Early Kooka wood fired oven, this house will make you feel like you are back in a time when class and sophistication was at it's peak.

The beautiful front verandah will have you sipping coffee while overlooking your beautiful garden and tree lined street enjoying nothing but sounds of birds on this very quiet street in Mount Lawley.

Through the front door with it's very own original ringer is the stunning entry to the whole house.
